October 2014

Dear Parent/Carer

As part of A level Philosophy and Ethics students have an opportunity to attend a very popular conference in London led by renowned and respected philosopher Peter Vardy. The conference covers various topics which form part of the Philosophy and Ethics course and students in previous years have found the experience to be extremely valuable.

The trip is scheduled for Thursday 20th November 2014. Students will travel to and from the conference independently by train and will meet me at the venue. The directions are on moodle and we suggest that they travel with at least one other person. The conference lasts from 9.30am-3.30pm with a break for lunch. Students should bring a packed lunch or money to purchase lunch in the break.

We reserve the right to withdraw the place in the very unlikely event that the behaviour of any student gives cause for concern.

You are invited to make a voluntary contribution of £20.50 which will cover the cost of the conference fee and other incidental costs. I must, however, tell you that as the school could not bear the cost of the visit, the visit will not take place unless all parents, who are able, are willing to contribute.

Please indicate below if your child wishes to take part in the trip by returning the attached parent consent form to the finance office by Wednesday 5th November 2014. You may pay online or alternatively forward a cheque made payable to Sackville School in an envelope to the finance office. We are unable to make provisional bookings, so the earlier we receive confirmation the more likely we are to gain tickets for this over-subscribed conference.

Yours sincerely

Dawn Yendell
