Dear Parent/Carer

Year 11 GCSE English – Summer 2022 Examinations

You may be aware that this week, exam boards released advanced information about the summer 2022 examinations. This was in order to support students following disrupted learning in recent years due to COVID-19.

For English language, students have been provided advanced information for language paper 2 only. This includes the time period and genre of the sources that they will be given in the reading section as well as the type of text they will be expected to complete in the writing section. This information is as followed below:

Paper 2: writers' viewpoints and perspectives

Section A Reading
Source A	Source B
21 st century Autobiography writing	19 th century Essay

Section B writing
Question 5
Article

For English literature, the exams have already been revised to allow schools to choose two from the poetry anthology, modern novel and 19th century novel modules. Therefore, Sackville students will complete the poetry anthology and modern novel questions alongside compulsory questions on Macbeth and unseen poetry.

We thank you for your support with your child's GCSE English. If you have any further queries, you can contact us at zangella@sackvilleschool.org.uk, chalford@sackvilleschool.org.uk or Mrs Jennie Grimes, English Curriculum Team Leader at jgrimes@sackvilleschool.org.uk

Yours sincerely

Mr Z Angella and Miss C Halford
