Dear Parent/Carer

As part of the AS drama and theatre studies course, your child is required to write about live theatre in their DRAM1A exam. This play will provide an excellent contrast to other productions they will see as it is completely naturalistic in style.

The theatre visit will take place on Tuesday 18th March 2014 to go to the Theatre Royal, Brighton to see a performance of George Bernard Shaw's 'Pygmalion'.

You are invited to make a voluntary contribution of £10.00 which will cover the cost of the theatre ticket and insurance. I must, however, tell you that as the school could not bear the cost of the visit, the visit will not take place unless all parents, who are able, are willing to contribute. Your child will make their own way to the theatre to meet staff at 7.20pm for a 7.45pm curtain. The performance is expected to end at approximately 10.00pm and the students will be dismissed from the theatre.

Please complete and return the attached parental consent forms with the £10.00 payment by Friday 7th February. Please make cheques payable to Sackville School or make an online payment.

Yours sincerely

Miss A Beckingham
Curriculum Leader of Drama
